Bullying

Bullying is just nonsense. There is no reason why people should harm other human beings by using verbal or physical actions. If there is any way to get rid of bullying, I wouldn't hesitate to join a group against this nonsense. I've seen people get bullied, and it makes me angry. I feel really bad for the victims because this isn't an easy thing to forget about. Sometimes people get hurt so bad they commit suicide. That's the sad thing about it. Why would you bully someone just because your background is different? I just wish the bullies would put themselves in the victim's shoes, and see how they feel.

If you ever see anyone get bullied, please do the right thing, and tell an adult so he/she can handle the situation. You will be preventing something serious from happening. Trust me. The victim will really appreciate the help.

Bullying is really not cool. People just pick on other people because they are jealous of what the other person might have. They also do this because they think they will be "awesome", but all it really does is just make them look like a fool. And let's keep bullying out of schools. If you see bullying, report it.
