Media Influence on Teenagers

Media sometimes influences teenagers to act badly. They do things they really don't want to do, but they still do them. Some teenagers do drugs, text while driving, and smoke. Drugs are bad. They can destroy the mind and body. Texting and driving can also be bad. Media has affected my family, and it can affect any family. I'm a student, and I know what media can do.

America Escheverria, 7th Grade, RYSS