I think Barack Obama will be a good President because he is with the Democratic Party. I think he will focus on making the United States a better place. For example, he will create more job opportunities for people. I also think he will bring the soldiers home from Iraq. I also think he will help the people in need like those after a hurricane or the poor. Overall, I think he wouldn't be a good, but a great President. I think Obama can make change in the United States like making things cheaper, at least gas prices.
