

Honor

Honor is having high respect for somebody. Honor is respecting your parents and other adults. One day, my mom was at work, and I was with her. She said, “Be respectful with the adults.” Suddenly, I remembered what my teacher told me about Honor. I said to my mom, “Yes mom, I will be respectful.”

Responsibility

Responsibility means being responsible. One day, I was playing with my friends. I was so tired that I went to my house to sleep. When I woke up, I remembered that I did not do my homework. Then I remembered to be responsible by doing my homework.

Commitment

Commitment is a pledge or promise that you make. I think commitment is when you keep a promise. One day, I made a promise with my mom, and I haven't broken that promise. I think commitment is an obligation that you have with somebody.

Citizenship

I think citizenship is when you tell the truth. I think citizenship is when you tell the truth to your parents. This is what citizenship means to me.

Yennifer Garfias, 7th Grade, RYSS