

Honor

I honor my family like my uncle, grandma, grandpa, and mom. I honor those people because they make me feel better when I am sad. When I fell down, they helped me with my injury. They were there for me. That's why I honor my family, because I know they will always be there for me.

Responsibility

Responsibility for me is someone asking you to take care of something. If you lose what the person told you to take care of, they will be upset at you because they trusted you. But if you don't lose the person's stuff, he won't be upset with you. If he asks you again, you know that he trusts you.

Commitment

My grandma made a commitment to visit my uncle at the cemetery because he was her son. Everybody in my family loved him so much. Since his death, my grandma has visited him a lot. My family always commits to go to the cemetery to see him there.

Citizenship

Citizenship for me is being a good person who obeys the law. Lawyers obey the law. They help people in need.
